Ruby Luck

Ruby Luck is undertaking a Masters of Music Studies at the Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University, under the tutelage of Natasha Vlassenko. She received fourth prize in the 2019 Lev Vlassenko Piano Competition, in which she performed Rachmaninov's Second Piano Concerto with the Queensland Symphony Orchestra. Other concerto opportunities include performances with the Queensland Conservatorium Symphony Orchestra in 2018 and the Young Conservatorium Symphony Orchestra in 2016.

Within the Queensland Conservatorium, Ruby has won several awards, including the John and Sue Thompson Prize (2021), the Hilda Woolmer Accompaniment Prize (2019), the Margeret Nickson Prize (2019), the Minnie May Bussey Pianoforte Prize (2017), and the Ruby C. Cooling Prize (2017). She has performed in masterclasses and lessons with esteemed international pianists including Peter Hill, Roy Howat, Alexander Strukov, Lance Coburn, Gil Garburg and Vyacheslav Gryaznov.

Within Brisbane, Ruby performs frequently both as a soloist and collaborative pianist. A passionate chamber musician, she has performed alongside esteemed local and international artists in the Queensland Conservatorium Side-by-Side concert (2018), as a mentee with Ensemble Q (2020) and most recently with Southern Cross Soloists (2021).

Wyana O'Keefe

Wyana O'Keefe is a vibrant and versatile Percussionist, Educator and Conductor, passionate about sharing her love of music and music making. Wyana started playing percussion in high school and went on to study the instrument at the University of Western Australia and the Australian National University. Since graduating in 2005, Wyana has worked as a teacher and professional freelance musician throughout Australia. Wyana moved to Townsville in early 2020 and immediately became a strong supporter of BRO. She initiated a percussion workshop program and follow up mentoring of BRO's young percussionists in 2020-21.

Andrew Ryder

Andrew Ryder was born in Townsville and started his musical journey in primary school on trumpet. He joined many ensembles while at school including the fledgling Townsville Youth Orchestra, the first of its kind in Townsville. Andrew went on to join the army as a musician and has played in many of Australia's Army Bands. The army gave Andrew the opportunity to pursue conducting and he progressed to Music Director, a position he held for 15 years. The last eight years of his military career Andrew held the position of Music Director, 1 RAR Band here in Townsville. Andrew has previously conducted the Barrier Reef Orchestra including the Queens Gardens concerts in collaboration with AFCM, BRO goes to the Movies, World Music Concert celebrating Townsville 150 and a BRO children's concert featuring Peter and the Wolf. Andrew has stepped in as rehearsal conductor for many concerts. When not on the conductors' podium, Andrew leads the BRO horn section.

The Townsville Choral Society

The Townsville Choral Society Choir began in 1906 and has been the prominent choir in the Townsville region since then. The TCS choir has sung at civic ceremonies and events such as ANZAC Day, Carols by Candlelight and community festivals. The choir has a tradition of working with international and national guest conductors and artists who visit Townsville frequently. These occasions present our members with opportunities to further their vocal and musical skill. Since 2013, the choir has been led by Musical Director, Rachel Cairns. Choir is held on Tuesday nights 7pm - 9:30pm at our hall, 485 Sturt Street. New members are welcome, no audition required.
